Dear Friend or Business Owner:

The Philosophy Day School community is eagerly preparing for its 2012 benefit auction. At this auction, the school raises essential funds to support its programs, its teachers and its physical plant. The benefit auction will be held on April 13, 2012 at the Central Park Boathouse. The auction is our school's biggest fundraising event. We expect over 150 friends and family members of the school to be in attendance. We hope you will join neighborhood friends, merchants and other New York organizations in supporting this major fundraising effort.

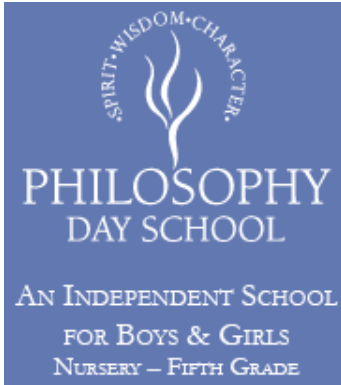

The school will most gratefully accept any form of contribution -- merchandise, sponsorship of the event and/or gift certificates for goods and services. Donors' names will be displayed in the printed auction materials and at the auction itself. All contributions are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

The Philosophy Day School is located at 12 East 79th Street. It serves children from the ages of 3 through 11 and is committed to providing a rich academic education that emphasizes a love for the pursuit of wisdom and incorporates character development as an essential ingredient in the educational process. The school relies heavily on the generosity of donors such as yourself to continue to thrive.

Please return to the school the completed donation form attached hereto, together with all merchandise and/or gift certificates donated. (If you prefer, we can generate a gift certificate for you.) You may mail, fax, email or hand deliver your donation form to: Philosophy Day School – Auction, 12 East 79th Street, New York, NY 10075, fax 212-744-6088, or KKazimierska@philosophyday.org.

Thank you on behalf of the Philosophy Day School for considering this request.

Sincerely yours,
William Fox
